HERE'S THE EASY WAY TO GROW

"PLANTS WITHOUT SEEDS"

THE AIRWRAP WAY ---

SAVE TIME, SAVE MONEY

About Air layering—Air layering is a centuries old method of propagation or reproduction..... simply the process means the growing of roots on the branches of living trees or plants, then cutting the branches off and planting them. This method of propagation has been practiced for hundreds of years. This method produces large plants or trees in a short time. With AIRWRAP, air layering has been reduced to a simple process---in fact, so easy that anyone can do it.

Easy To Do—Anyone can Air layer with AIRWRAP, and become an expert in this seedless soil-less method of plant propagation. Complete, detailed and illustrated instructions are available with each order.

Most Plants Respond—It can be safely stated that most plants and trees respond to Air layering with AIRWRAP, Fruit, Nut, Shade and Ornamental Trees; Berry and Flowering Vines and Ornamental Shrubs have all been successfully Air-layered.

Cuttings—Cuttings can also be quickly rooted with AIRWRAP by using materials included in the Kit and following simple instructions.

Tree Farming Will Pay on Your Farm

WOOD FOR THE FUTURE

Wood has been the basic home building material for centuries. Its beauty makes it the choice of million's for today's modern designs. Progress already made on privately owned tree farms proves that forests can be used and perpetuated. Modern tree farming practices encourage natural reproduction and maximum use of forest soil. Tree farms are planned to grow the maximum amount of wood per acre.

MR. FARMER what acres have you on your farm for tree farming? Ask your local county agent for his advice. The best and inexpensive way to begin tree farming is from seed. The trees will be in your seed beds when moisture conditions are right for planting. Tree farming does not call for expensive labor or costly machinery. Think it over.

MR. FARMER are you tax conscious? Most people are. Reforested land is practically tax free in most States. Reforested land increases in value from $20.00 to $30.00 per acre each year. Land planted to trees is the finest insurance policy for your estate.

Some farms have wind-blown practically abandoned fields. Trees will do well where farming fails. Why not turn such fields into thick valuable forest. THINK IT OVER.

We attempt to maintain stocks on items herein listed for prompt shipment of orders. Since there is a great variance in the maturing date of seeds and length of time required for processing and time required for importing certain varieties we cannot always ship all items at the same time.

Orders will be filled as promptly as the arrival of new crop seed permits. If customers do not wish orders held for new crop seed, please advise us of your wishes.

PLANT TREES AND SAVE YOUR LANDS

One single acre of natural woodland is like a giant sponge. This one acre will replenish the underground water table more than 500 acres of bare or eroded land. Underground water tables are being pumped to the danger point in many areas from the Pacific to the Atlantic Coasts. As the remaining forests are cut down, and no new ones started, higher than normal summer heat is the rule and less normal natural rainfall can be expected. When the rains come in floods, most of the water runs off causing great damage, never reaching the underground water table. As the water table drops wells and springs dry up.

ON PLANTING

CULTURAL INSTRUCTIONS - Simple, condensed instructions are supplied with each order.

NURSERYMEN and others desiring more detailed information should purchase the 550 page book "Plant Propagation Principles and Practices by Hudson T. Hartmann and Dale E. Kester. Issued 1959. PRICE $11. This book may be purchased from us or your bookstore.

PREVENT DAMPING OFF

Damping off is usually the most destructive disease of nursery seed beds. Damping-off may be found before the seedlings emerge from the soil or after germination takes place. If pre-emergence Damping off takes place, seeds will fail to germinate or the young roots and cotyledons are destroyed. In many cases, this fungi will attack the young seedlings after germination has taken place. Young seedlings will wilt and fall over. As a preventative dust seed with ARASAN before planting using 1 1/2 teaspoon per pound. POSTPAID; 1 oz. 75¢; 8 oz. $1.50; 2 lb. $4.75.

Rooted Cuttings

Certain plants cannot be reproduced from seed, there are others produced more successfully by other methods. In many instances cuttings are made and rooted. Plants produced in this manner remain more true to type, generally have better root structure for transplanting. Two popular methods of producing rooted cuttings are mist beds or under glass. Cuttings produced in this way are generally ready for transplanting either late May and June or in the fall. There are variations in time according to the variety.

Orders booked for rooted cuttings will be shipped only at these times unless there is carry over from the previous maturity season, that is the previous fall or June. Please allow for these time elements when booking cuttings. An assortment of varieties may be shipped at several different times.

WHEN PRACTICAL, SECOND CHOICE VARIETIES----- SHOULD BE NAMED. By so doing orders may at certain times be filled more promptly.

Minimum quantities of 25 plants per item will apply unless noted otherwise. Orders for lesser amounts cannot be accepted. Orders of 500 plants or more may be booked at the 100 rate less 10%. ALL PRICES QUOTED ARE PREPAID to you east of the Mississippi. ADD 5% West of the Mississippi if you wish your order shipped prepaid.

VENUS FLY TRAP

Catches Flies and Insects

Near the center of each blade or leaf are three triggers. When they are touched twice by an insect, the trap is sprung thereby catching and holding the insect until the soft part is digested. The leaves then open and wait for another victim.

Besides being very unusual, the Venus Fly Trap is a thing of beauty and very easy to grow. It thrives indoors and will develop its crimson-colored traps within three weeks. In addition, it produces a velvety white flower on 12-inch stalks which uses to lure insects into its traps. Culture furnished. Comes 3 Bulbs to package for $1.50. ppd.
